

O. P. INDICTED BY LABOR FEDERATION

Proposals Rejected at Chicago Convention to Be Submitted to Democratic Party.

NO HOPE IN REPUBLICANS

Deers Greet Gompers's Arrangement at Meeting of A. F. of L. at Montreal.

MONTREAL, June 12.—Organized labor men here the gauntlet today to the Democratic party and now will appeal the Democrats for recognition of its demands.

This decision came when the American Federation of Labor, in annual convention here, unanimously condemned Republican platform adopted in Chicago as a document "defiant in its face to the enemies of labor" and that "proposes an industrial environment and an abrogation of rights precious as life itself."

Declaring that the Republican party is "turned its back upon labor," the question instructed Samuel Gompers and Matthew Wolf, president and vice-president of the federation, to submit "identical form" to the Democratic convention at San Francisco, the opponents of labor which were presented to the Republicans in Chi-ago.

In a lengthy report, bitterly assailing the various phases of Republican platform. Producers and Mr. Wolf brought the report before the delegation. The labor men's indictment of the party was met with enthusiastic cheers and plaudits, while hisses and "boos" interrupted the reading of several of the publican planks.

Without debate the report was approved and the federation went on to condemn the Republican platform on the grounds that it denies the right to strike against the unemployment, remains silent on the right to organize trade unions and attain justice by collective bargaining, offers no remedy for the high cost of living and denies the importance of protecting, regulating labor's demand for respect of compulsory arbitration sections of each Communist agitation act, denies lawful right of workers to cease working in the strike on peaceful arbitration of disputes, aims to undermine sovereignty of Mexican people and "fulfill the hopes and aims of those whose sole object is the exploitation of the people and the boundless resources of Mexico," fails to urge Congressional legislation to prevent Federal courts from usurpation of authority in declaring unconstitutional acts passed by Congress, fails to favor Federal compensation law and election of Federal judges by the people for six year terms and threatens the right of the people to bring about a change in the administration and laws of the Government by peaceful means as is guaranteed by the Constitution.

Before adjourning until Monday the convention accepted the invitation of Secretary of Labor Wilson to recommend a representative to represent the federation at the coming meeting of the International Labor Commission, which was established under the League of Nations. The United States will be represented by the commission's conference by a representative from labor, industry and government, but they will have no voting power until this country joins the league.

A Congressional investigation into alluded "unpardonable outrages" inflicted upon the mine workers by the "coal interests" in West Virginia was demanded in a resolution by the United Mine Workers of America, unanimously adopted by the convention.

ORDERED DEPORTED. FACES NEW CHARGE

Post Says Russian 'Communist' Aided Steel Company.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Additional warrants against Dmytro Rwanikiw, a Russian, who already has been ordered deported, were issued today by Assistant Secretary of Labor Post, "on the ground the alien committed a crime involving moral turpitude."

Mr. Post said that testimony at the hearing in Cleveland was that Rwanikiw, while employed by a detective agency "had joined the Communist party in the interest of the Youngstown Steel and Tube Company."

"The alien admitted," the Assistant secretary said, "that he had not only organized a local branch of the Communist party but had induced other aliens to join it." Reports furnished by him, Mr. Post said, were transmitted to the steel company by whom in turn, according to the Assistant Secretary, they were transmitted to Bliss Morton, an agent of the Department of Justice.

"The bond under which the alien was released when arrested was furnished by the Youngstown Steel and Tube Company," Mr. Post continued, adding that at the hearing Rwanikiw claimed he had been promised money and a passport for his return in case of deportation.

GUARD-CARUSO BABY SINCE JEWEL THEFT

Mother Fears Kidnappers and Members of Household
All Are Armed.

Since her jewels were stolen early in the week, the fear has grown on Mrs.
Enrico Caruso that an attempt would be made to harm or kidnap her baby.

The child, it was learned yesterday, is being carefully guarded as a result of the mother's apprehension of danger.
It was learned, too, that practically every member of the tenor's household at the summer residence in Easthampton has been armed. Mrs. Caruso, according to detectives, has not provided herself with a revolver, but her sister-in-law, Mrs. Park Benjamin, Jr., has taken that precaution.

Investigation into the tangled mystery of the half million dollar jewel robbery seemed yesterday to be confined strictly to a partial reconstruction of the movements of certain employees in the Caruso household last Tuesday night. Later Detective Thomas J. Corrigan, an agency man employed on the case, declared the solution of the crime was a matter of but a few hours.

"I am confident that we will break this case and will do it very soon," he said. "The real thief and the person we want is on the ground and we have our eyes on the one we want. It is merely a question of time until we break the case clean and recover every article of jewelry."

All last night Corrigan questioned servants. Off and on between 8 o'clock Friday night and 8 o'clock yesterday morning he had Fitzgerald, the chauffeur-handly man before him. Frank Furtado, the butler, also was questioned and asked to repeat his experiences of Tuesday night as he remembered them. The chauffeur-handly man's story was found to differ in no important detail from that told by him when the police were first called. Furrado declared the sound of the alarm bell on the jewel case attracted his attention and drew him to a window in time to see the chauffeur stealing a revolver.

Since the gems were stolen "crank" letters and messages from persons who apparently believe they may be helping the work of the investigators have been continuously received by Mrs.
Caruso. One was a letter to Mr. Caruso from a man in the northern part of the State who wrote, among other things, "victory is mine." His identity may be looked up.

A cablegram from Mr. Caruso yesterday reported to his wife that the king of Italy has conferred upon him one of the highest honors of his Government. He failed to name the decoration or tell what led to the possession.

BROOKLYN SALOONS WILL CLOSE--JAN. 1

Vote to Hang On in Hope of a Wet Congress in the Fall.

The decision of the United States Supreme Court concerning the validity of the liquor laws settled things in the minds of a good many people, but it is not going to close the doors of saloons in Brooklyn—not just yet. The United Liquor Dealers' Association of Kings county announced yesterday that its members plan to keep open house until the first of the year.

Many of the members feel that Congress this fall may obtain a wet majority, wet enough, at any rate, to give the Volstead act a fresh interpretation, and at a meeting Friday they pledged themselves to work for the election of Representatives whose minds run in the same channels as their own.

Meanwhile, they asserted, their policy should be strict obedience to the law as it stands. "It does not pay to violate it," said President Michael Posley. "The expense of defending the charge is very heavy, and the whole procedure of running about of the law is unpleasant."

The increasing vigor of the attack against illegal selling being conducted by local prohibition enforcement agents was again evident yesterday, when Assistant Chief Enforcement Agent John J. Quigley reported that seven saloon proprietors had been arrested Friday night, together with six bartenders.

One bartender, John C. McGann, employed in the cafe owned by John Fallon, 245 Manhattan avenue, in addition to the charge of selling whiskey, was held on the charge of destroying Government evidence against him. According to revenue agents, he dumped a quart of liquor into a sink when they showed their shields.

Other arrests were made at Herman Bohling's cafe, 42 Park avenue; Joseph Gallagher's, 474 Eighth avenue; the Victoria cafe, 164 Eighth avenue; George Stuh's, 324 Southern Boulevard; Gustaf Lavy's, 441 Prospect avenue, the Bronx; August Noster's, 119 St. Ann's avenue; Eliel Hensberg, 1230 street and St. Nicholas avenue; James Sullivan's, 1114 street and Eighth avenue; Kennedy's cafe, 151st street and Amsterdam avenue, and John Sheenan's, 2600 American avenue.

Shortly yesterday near Morgan, N. J., three men held up David Lerner, a wholesale and retail liquor dealer of Main avenue, Long Branch, and carried off seven barrels of whiskey and wine he was transporting. The men were arrested as they were bringing the liquor into Perth Amboy, according to the New Jersey police.

Window Cleaner Falls Ten Stories.

Indore Bruler, 22 years old, lost his balance yesterday while cleaning windows on the tenth floor of 441 Fifth avenue and plunged the full distance into a courtyard below. He was killed instantly.
